

Women's 50c Fleeced Vests and Pants

SATURDAY 33 CENTS

A few days ago we received a case of Women's Heavy Fleece Vests and Pants that were ordered more than two months ago. We refused to accept them from the railroad, who, in time, notified the house we bought them from. The garments were made up to sell for 50c, but rather than have them returned with freight charges both ways to pay, they made us an offer—to accept them at such a price that we could put them in for some Saturday and close the whole case. We accepted the offer and here they are at less than their original price to us.
